CURRENTLY:

Clinical Practice: I have been engaged in full time private practice as a New Jersey Licensed Psychologist since 1973. In my practice I see a wide range of problems and treat individuals (all ages), couples and families. I have post-doctoral training in family therapy, behavior therapy (child and adult), marital therapy, and divorce therapy. Areas of interest include family therapy, couples and marital therapy, cognitive-behavioral treatment of anxiety, phobia, depression, post-traumatic stress disorder, and pain management. I am especially interested in working with children and families of divorce and with children and families where sexual abuse has occurred.

Forensic Practice: Founder and managing partner of Dr. Edwin A. Rosenberg & Associates, a firm of licensed psychologists offering forensic psychological services to the courts and to attorneys. I have served as a court-appointed and jointly retained expert in over two hundred and fifty cases and served as a retained expert in over three hundred cases. In that capacity I have conducted evaluations and offered an expert opinion in child custody evaluations, and cases dealing with parenting time disputes, child removal disputes, visitation disputes, parental alienation, and grandparent visitation disputes. I have been appointed by the court to be a family therapist, to oversee "therapeutic visitation" between a child and a parent, and as a therapeutic mediator to mediate custody and visitation disputes. I have been appointed to be a Parent Coordinator in cases where there is a breakdown of parental communication and cooperation that jeopardizes the children's safety and welfare. I have been retained as an expert in civil cases involving Marital Tort, personal injury, sexual harassment, and competency. I have also conducted expert evaluations in criminal cases. I have been appointed by the Court and accepted as an expert and testified in Bergen, Hudson, Essex, Union, Morris, Somerset, Middlesex, Hunterdon, Mercer, Monmouth, Sussex, Warren and Passaic counties.
